- Upon members' agreement, we will merge that code base as a baseline.

List of Interfaces for Initial Release and Contributions

- We should consider what kind of interfaces are desirable to be implemented to support the initial list of device types.
- In addition, voluntary contributions are requested to implement all the interfaces required for the initial release based on the baseline code base.
- To facilitate our discussion, a Jira ticket is created. Please visit here and feel free to make comments and/or edit the tables. <https://jira.allseenalliance.org/browse/ASAHAЕ-22>
