The screenshot shows a 'Reply...' dialog box in a web browser. It contains a large text area for comments. Below the text area are two rows of radio buttons for voting. The first row is for 'Code-Review' with options -2, -1, 0, +1, and +2. The +1 option is selected. The second row is for 'Verified' with options 0, 1, and 2. The 1 option is selected. To the right of the radio buttons is the text 'Looks good to me, but someone else must approve'. At the bottom of the dialog are two buttons: 'Post' and 'Cancel'.
